

From: American Friends of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra

Contact: Rubenstein Communications

Adam Miller amiller@rubenstein.com, 212-843-8032

Kelsey Stokes kstokes@rubenstein.com, 212-843-9317

For Calendar Listings

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF THE ISRAEL PHILHARMONIC
ORCHESTRA'S "NEW YORK FAMILY MUSIC DAY" TO BE HELD
DEC. 3 AT BOHEMIAN NATIONAL HALL

Event Designed for both Children and Adults to Explore the Exciting World of Classical Music Will Feature an Instrument Petting Zoo and an Interactive Concert
by Dynamic Pianist Orli Shaham

The American Friends of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra will hold its New York Family Music Day on Sunday, Dec. 3 from 9:30 am – 12:30 pm at Bohemian National Hall (321 East 73rd Street). The ticketed event, benefiting the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra's KeyNote Education Program, will feature an instrument petting zoo and an interactive child-focused concert with internationally renowned concert pianist Orli Shaham and her musical friends.

New York Family Music Day, which introduces children to the wonders of classical music, also includes a gourmet brunch and much more family entertainment! The event's co-chairs are Caroline Berley Endzweig and Lindsay Eichner Kraus.

Tickets are: family package starting at $500, single adult tickets at $150, and single child tickets at $75. For more information and to purchase tickets, please call 212-697-2949 and email events@afipo.org.

Dietary laws observed.

WHAT: American Friends of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra's New York Family Music Day

WHEN: Sunday, Dec. 3
9:30 am – 12:30 pm

WHERE: Bohemian National Hall
321 East 73rd Street